

The Registrars of Voters are responsible for the administration of all local, state, and national elections; the registration of all eligible voters; and the conduct of primaries and referendums.

Contact the Registrar of Voters for all information on your local, state, and national elected officials.

The registrars do not maintain regular office hours, so please check the community calendar for Registrar's special office hours.

Election Forms are available from the Secretary of State's Office.
